

Third Grade News

from the desk of Mrs. VanSleeten

February 14, 2020

Math: We are working on telling time - especially concentrating on time before and after the hour. Next week we tackle elapsed time.	Grammar: We are talking about adjectives and compound sentences.
Reading: We are working on reading fiction books, concentrating on characters and their traits. Next week we will be put into book clubs.	Writing: We spent time publishing our informational texts and next week we start our unit on realistic fiction.
Word Study: The words in our list were words that writers use often. Next week will be a review week with no list coming home but there will be a test on Friday - review words from the last six weeks.	Social Studies: We are starting our unit on the history of Michigan. This week we learned about the question historians ask and sources historians use.
Specials for next week: Monday - Music and library Tuesday - art Wednesday - Steam Thursday - gym Friday - no special due to early release	FYI: Upcoming events- February 21 - Early release